

Educating Men for Others

Friday, September 8, 2023

Dear parents,

We are thrilled to share a significant milestone with you all – an upgrade to the St. Paul’s High School website (www.stpauls.mb.ca)! This marks a momentous step in our ongoing commitment to provide the best online experience for our students, faculty, parents and our wider community.

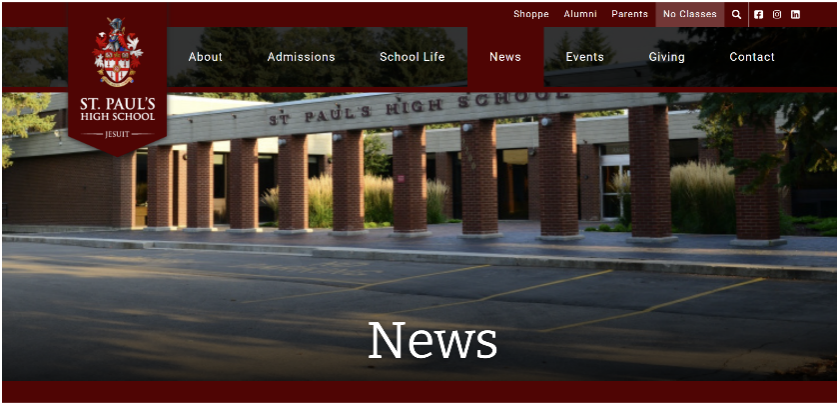

Our new website is ready to welcome you with enhanced features and improved functionality. We’ve put in considerable effort to ensure it caters to your expectations and makes your online journey with us smoother than ever.

Starting next week, you can explore the revamped website and all its offerings. We’ve designed it with you in mind, and we believe it will greatly enrich your interaction with St. Paul’s High School.

As part of this exciting transition, the decision was made to retire the Community portal. While it has been a valuable resource for many, we recognize that it no longer meets the evolving needs of our community.

A few things have been changed, or moved around, and you’ll find a full description of those changes below:

- The NEWS section will be the new home of the St. Paul’s High School News (formerly WEEBLY - <https://sphsnews.weebly.com/>). Weekly news updates (published on Fridays) will now be published directly on our website. Other news relating to St. Paul’s High School will also be published here.
